LEGION NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO.—Twenty Los Angeles musical organizations founded by American Legion posts will be included in the California to Paris, France, in September to attend the national convention of the World War veterans' organization. Included in this number will be the Canters, an American Legion glee club composed of veterans from all the posts of Los Angeles County.

The musical organizations have been founded largely by Harry E. Insley, who has command of 78 Southern California posts.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Notice of the appointment of Department Commander Slavich as a member of the Legion's national child welfare committee has just been received by Department Adjutant Flisk.

Commander Slavich is particularly well fitted to serve in this capacity, having been chairman of the California state child welfare committee for a period of two years preceding his election to the office of department commander.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Every one of the 300 posts of the American Legion will make special efforts for Mother's Day, May 8, will be a day of remembrance for those mothers who gave their sons in defense of their country during the World War.

Every Gold Star mother in the state will receive flowers on this day from the Legion post in the community, and in many places special exercises dedicated to the Gold Star mothers will be sponsored by the Legion.

SAN FRANCISCO.—American Legion posts throughout California have been asked to adopt additional Boy Scout troops and furnish scoutmasters wherever needed, according to a bulletin sent out by Dr. John F. Slavich, state commander of the World War veterans' organization.

In Southern California the twelfth regional executive committee of the Boy Scouts of America has created a special national field scout commission for those who are rendering conspicuous service among the 45,000 scouts of the district. Commander Slavich has asked the Legion posts to make Scout work a major endeavor in their programs of community service for the year.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Loans made to World War veterans by the United States Veterans' Bureau on adjusted compensation certificates have gone over the $3,568,584 mark, according to word, received by James E. Flisk, state adjutant of the American Legion, from Washington officials.

The loans have been made to more than 35,000 veterans scattered over the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Favorable consideration for the establishment of Armistice Day, November 11, as a legal holiday in California has been given by the State Legislature. The bill to add Armistice Day to the list of holidays is a part of the legislative program of the American Legion, and was introduced in the Legislature by the war veterans in the Legislature.

Harbor City Women Named By Committee at Monday Meeting

The primary election held by the Women's Club Wednesday resulted in Mrs. W. M. Brooks and Mrs. Roy Arundell receiving the highest number of votes for president, Mrs. George P. Shidler and Mrs. S. C. Collins for first vice-president; Mrs. Brady Wolfe and Mrs. S. C. Collins for second vice-president; Mrs. Jessie Reeve and Mrs. Brady Wolfe for third vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Neelands for secretary, Mrs. Edw. W. Huddleston and Mrs. Roy Arundell for corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. L. Parks and Mrs. J. A. Stone for federation secretary, Mrs. P. G. Briner for treasurer, Mrs. Isabel Henderson received the highest number of votes for auditor, but owing to the fact that she has held the office for two consecutive terms she is not eligible for election again. The next two highest votes were Mrs. Jessie Reeve and Mrs. Sam Rappaport. Those receiving the highest number of votes for directors were Mrs. J. W. Post, Mrs. J. A. Stone, Mrs. Isabel Henderson, Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, and Mrs. Mary Lewis.

Mrs. Isabel Henderson gave a short talk on India and the Malay States, and the girls' glee club from the high school, under the direction of Miss Lois Lingenfelter, sang two numbers.

Local Woman Is Honored by Royal Neighbors

Mrs. Mary L. Crimmings Is Elected President of District

Mrs. Mary L. Crimmings, oracle of Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors, was elected district president at the annual district meeting in San Pedro last Thursday.

Four hundred and twenty-five neighbors were present at the afternoon session, which was confined to a school of instruction. At the evening session over 700 enjoyed the fancy drill and a class adoption. Neighbors were in attendance from as far north as Santa Barbara.

The next annual district meeting will be held in Los Angeles and will be in charge of Los Angeles camps.
